With this in mind, FEM has provided Affiliated Membership to cover any eventualities in this area. A Certificate of Affiliation may be issued to churches, societies and organisations seeking fellowship with FEM. At no time will there be a loss of autonomy for those associating with FEM.

During this service certificates will be presented to those completing the Coursework, and to those receiving Ministerial Accreditation. At the very centre of the Rally is the Preaching of the Gospel of Christ.

Appendix 1.

To clarify what is meant by the terms 'Charismatic' and 'Ecumenical' we offer the following:-

a) By 'Charismatic' we mean any person, church, society or organisation that places undue emphasis upon a particular Gift of the Holy Spirit, at the expense of spiritual discernment in determining what is indeed of the Spirit as opposed to what is of the flesh. We reject the teaching that states it is essential for a person to speak in Tongues as evidence of salvation or of being filled with the Spirit.

b) By 'Ecumenical' we mean any person, church, society or organisation that is prepared to co-operate with churches, fellowships or individuals who endorse a different gospel than that contained in Scripture, which is Justification by Faith in Christ alone and in His finished Work on Calvary. (The Fellowship of Evangelists and Ministers is established to assist and fellowship with Christian workers who are independent of any denomination.) We maintain that all ecumenical bodies, such as the World Council of Churches and Churches Together are used by Satan to prepare the way for the Apostate One World Church as foretold in the Holy Bible.

This Constitution was agreed by the Executive Council of the Fellowship of Evangelists and Ministers. It will be offered for acceptance and approval by all members of FEM at the inaugural AGM.
